

PROCLAMATION

National Housekeeping Week

September 10-16, 2023

Whereas, National Housekeeping Week is a week-long celebration dedicated to recognizing the efforts of hard-working housekeepers.

Whereas, any building operation such as hotels, restaurants, casinos, and other official buildings all function under the long hours and efforts of housekeeping, and

Whereas, if housekeeping did not exist and buildings are not properly cleaned, it can lead to illness and productivity loss for the people who visit, eat, live, work and play there, and

Whereas, the true heroes of any building operation, housekeepers have one of the toughest jobs in a building, but also one of the most important.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Kenneth Weise, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Avondale, Arizona, do hereby proclaim September 10-16, 2023, as National Housekeeping Week and extend sincere gratitude and appreciation to the hospitality industry of Avondale who provide excellent service every day.

Mayor

Attest:

City Clerk