

ART EVERYWHERE

On your quest to Discover Avondale, keep an eye out for public art found throughout the city. From colorful murals in Old Town to whimsical sculptures in the parks and the iconic heart that lights up Avondale Boulevard at night, you'll discover an identity that is Uniquely Avondale!

"Al Querido" heart sculpture photo shown on this page courtesy of Sharon Denke, photographer.

To learn more about Avondale's Public Art Program and the Public Art Masterplan, visit us at: www.AvondaleAZ.gov/PublicArt.

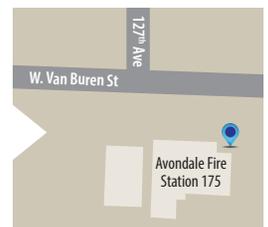

Bugs Eye View
101 E. Lower Buckeye Road

Hands On
495 E. Western Avenue

Grateful Hearts
12495 W. Van Buren Street

To the Avondale Community
16 E. Western Avenue

Algodon Arch
3500 N. Santa Fe Trail

NASCAR Mural
16 E. Western Avenue

The Family
12325 W. McDowell Rd

Rain Curtain
11490 W. Civic Center Drive

Al Querido
698 N. Avondale Blvd

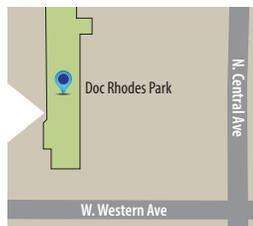

Family at Play
11465 W. Civic Center Drive

Japanese Garden Mural
12325 W. McDowell Rd

Leap of Faith
104 W. Western Avenue

First Responders Tribute
11465 W. Civic Center Drive

ART WALK LOCATIONS

1. Historic Avondale

- ▶ A Bugs Eye View (at Festival Fields)
- ▶ Hands On (Sernas Plaza)
- ▶ Leap of Faith
- ▶ To the Avondale Community
- ▶ NASCAR Championship Mural

2. Goodyear Farms Historic Cemetery

- ▶ Algodon Arch at Entrance

3. Art at The BLVD

- ▶ Al Querido (on the median of the blvd.)

4. Friendship Park

- ▶ The Family (Sculpture) - Next to soccer fields
- ▶ Japanese Gazebo Mural - Next to pond

5. Avondale Civic Center Campus

- ▶ First Responders Tribute (City Hall Lobby)
- ▶ Family at Play (Sculpture)
- ▶ Rain Curtain (Visitor's Center)

6. Avondale Fire Station 175

- ▶ Grateful Hearts (near flag poles at front of the fire station)

