

Thirtieth Anniversary of Mercy House Community Center
October 4, 2024

Whereas, October 4, 2024, marks the thirtieth anniversary of the Mercy House Community Center, a milestone worth celebrating; and

Whereas, Mercy House has been deeply committed to supporting the youth and families in the Southwest Valley by placing a strong emphasis on fostering educational opportunities and developing essential job skills. Their unwavering dedication has positively impacted the community, providing valuable resources and support for individuals to thrive and succeed; and

Whereas, Mercy House has broadened its mission to encompass a range of community services. These include hosting weekly Bible studies, conducting an annual Christmas outreach program, organizing a summer reading program, and providing essential support such as back-to-school supplies, emergency food, and clothing assistance. This multifaceted approach aims to address various needs within the community and offer support to those in need; and

Whereas, the unwavering commitment and tireless efforts of the volunteers at Mercy House Community Center have played a pivotal role in bringing about positive transformations in the lives of the individuals and families they serve. Through their selfless dedication, these volunteers have created a nurturing and supportive environment, offering valuable assistance and guidance that have made a profound difference in the well-being and prospects of those in need.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Kenneth Weise, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Avondale, Arizona, proclaim October 4, 2024, to be designated as Mery House Commitment Center Day in Avondale, Arizona, and urge all citizens to participate in observance of this historic event in honor of those who have volunteered at Mercy House over the last 30 years.

Mayor

City Clerk

Attest: